

The Folded Paper Problem - Solution

The 50-times folded paper is 2 to the power of 50 times the thickness of the unfolded paper, i.e. slightly over 1000 million million times the thickness of a single sheet of paper.